

degree	aim	precondition	supervision	entry-requirements
Supervisor	monitoring quality of education, reviewing education of the instructors and giving feed-back	medical student/ long-time experienced instructor, humanly suited	Supervisory board	supervisor course/ advanced education in leadership and hosting discussions
Instructor	guiding the attendees and educational modules, supervising operator and trainees, may be responsible for organisation and performance of the course	medical student/ well experienced and confident with contents of course schedule	Supervisor	instructor course/ advanced education in presentation techniques and conflict management
Operator	teaching appropriate parts under supervision	medical student/ knows the course schedule	Instructor	paramedic course
Trainee	getting to know the course schedule and concept from the instructor's point of view	medical student/ has participated as attendee	Instructor	AGEHMED course
Attendee	first contact, getting to know the course schedule as a participant	medical student	Team	not essential

Table 1: 5-step model for qualifying in peer education (training medical students in emergency medicine). To work the way up preconditions have to be fulfilled and students must prove their aptitude. Supervisors have to be appointed by the supervisory board (all supervisors).